DEDICATION

As the members of the class of 1964 look back upon their schooldays, they see a man who has been a faithful friend to them. For the past two years we have had this man beside us to give encouragement and guidance. Words cannot adequately express gratitude to him.

In appreciation we, the class of '64, take great pride in dedicating Memoirs '64 to our friend and teacher, Mr. Richard Bruce.

EDITORS

IN

CHIEF

We, the '64 yearbook staff, have worked hard to produce this volume of MEMOIRS. We hope that you enjoy this book as much as we have enjoyed working on it.

Within these pages, we have tried to record the many memorable events and activities of the year through pictures and words.

May this book be a treasured keepsake, both now and in the years to come, so you can look back and remember the many happy occasions in 1963 - '64.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Henry Brooks Adams once said: "A teacher affects eternity: he can never tell where his influence stops." In reality these famous words apply to all of us. Each word or thought or action somehow in some way affects those around us, and we are remembered and judged accordingly.

As members of the class of 1964, how will people remember and judge you? Your high school career is over now; whatever effect you may have had on those about you is over and done with. Your whole life, however, stretches out ahead of you — an uncertain but exciting and challenging future. A future you can use to remember that all you say and do affects other human beings. Resolve now to let your words and deeds make the best of impressions and do the most good for those around you. Your life and the lives of those around you will be that much better and richer for your efforts to make them so.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The year 1964 has been one of satisfaction to your Board of Education. After years of struggling with problems of housing, we are now able to devote more time and thought to the educational side of our school program. With the help of the administration and the teaching staff, we are constantly striving to offer a program which will prepare our young people for the ever increasing challenges to be faced in today's world.

The Board of Education wishes to congratulate you, the members of the Class of 1964, for the way you have already met some of these challenges. The large number of you planning on going to college as opposed to the relatively few who dropped out convince us that our efforts have not been in vain.

Our hopes go with you for continued success. We feel confident that through the coming years we will continue to be proud of each and every one of you.

P. D. Archibald
President of the Board of Education

Looking back on our four years at R-C-S we, the Class of '64, have many pleasant memories. Our "Sham-Rock" held in our freshman year was the beginning of many successful events to be sponsored by our class.

As sophomores in 1962, we held another "Sham-Rock" and hired the Lancers to provide the music. In the spring our "Lollipops and Roses" dance was equally successful. Seven members of our class were elected probationary members of the National Honor Society.

The following autumn we entered the new high school prepared to make our junior year a happy and prosperous one. Our "Fall Fling" was one of the first dances to be held in the new building, and on April 25, 1963, we proudly received our class rings at the annual Ring Dance. The highlight of our third year was our Junior Prom, "Stairway to the Stars." It was the first prom to be held in the new high school and all who were there on May 25th agreed that this important event was a great success.

During this, our last year at R-C-S, we began our activities with a record hop in the fall and the "Snow-Ball" during Christmas vacation. Twenty-two senior members of the National Honor Society received sweaters in October, and almost fifty per-cent of our class made plans for further education.

Graduation Day in June will be a memorable day. We are happy and excited to be beginning a new life, but we are also sad to know we are leaving behind our carefree days of high school.

Because of the amount of time required for the preparation of the Junior Prom, which was held on May 23, other activities seemed rather trivial to the members of the junior class.

In order to keep the treasurer, Linda Halsted, busy with the funds, the juniors held two successful dances on November 15, 1963 and on January 10, 1964. The former, which was entitled "Welcome Frosh" was in honor of their sister class, the Freshmen. The latter, which was known as the "Snow-Shoe Hop", greeted everyone returning from a frosty Christmas vacation.

The annual candy sale, which was managed by Glen Spoor and Rocco Lasavio, was very lucrative this year. Between the 9th and 16th of March, the juniors sold more than $600 worth of candy.

Finally, after patiently waiting for three years, the juniors became eligible on March 13, to receive their school ring. The dance sponsored by the student council made it possible for the juniors to receive their rings formally.

The freshmen started their year by electing Dorothy Logan as president; Bert Palmer, vice-president; Patty Palmer, secretary; and Raydeen Dedrick, treasurer.

They had a very profitable year, having sponsored three dances. One just before Christmas allowed all varsity basketball players and managers in free. They also sponsored a Valentine's dance and a dance at which the freshmen got in at reduced prices.

The freshmen were represented in many of the activities such as F.T.A., wrestling, varsity football, and J.V. basketball. These are just a few of their activities, but in the future years they hope to participate in even more activities.

Mr. Gearhardt, Miss Chworowsky, Mr. Simpson, and Mrs. Schoonmaker acted as advisors to Memoirs.

Under the supervision of Mrs. JoAnn Larson, Mrs. Wilhelmina Gaenzle, Mr. Gordon Simpson, and Mr. Joseph Oppedisano, the Staff and Shield enjoyed another profitable year. With Ronald McLagan as editor-in-chief, nine issues were published. The final copy of the paper contained the senior will and prophecy, in addition to other information concerning outstanding seniors. In March, students representing the school paper attended the Columbia Scholastic Press Conference in New York City.

The paper has been, as in other years, a vital force in promoting school spirit and keeping the student body well informed. It has provided a medium of journalistic training for those interested in such a career.

The Junior High News, under Mrs. Miers' supervision, is the name of the junior high newspaper. Every seventh and eighth grade student who wished to contribute material was a member of the staff.

The newspaper, published quarterly, kept the junior high student body well informed about their classmates' activities, special clubs, and extra-curricular events. The club not only gives the students the opportunity to use their creative and imaginative abilities, but also helps to improve their English expression and vocabulary.

The Lance, literary magazine of R-C-S, was established to publish the original writings by the student body, grades 7-12.

The policy of the magazine was to include as many types of literary selections as possible, including crossword puzzles and math puzzles, cartoons, famous parables, essays, short stories, and even selections in foreign languages.

The magazine's purpose was to be entertaining and inviting to as many readers as possible.

This year, Lance published its first issue under the direction of its editors, Sally Denham and Diane Elliot. Again as advisor was Miss Heather Gardener, joined this year by Mr. Louis Rosamilia. Lance members received much practice in choosing quality material for each issue, in addition to typing, proofreading, and duplicating in order to publish a magazine which represents the best of the writing talents of R-C-S students.

This year the Lance staff started exchanging issues with other Capital District high schools in an effort to enlighten our neighbors of the many writing talents which are to be found at R-C-S, and also, to gain any hints or suggestions to improve the format and content of our magazine.

Mr. Louis Rosamilia and Miss Heather Gardener, advisors.

P.T.A. REPRESENTATIVES

The P.T.A. Representatives are a newly-organized group of students from grades seven through twelve, who, under the direction of Dr. Filippone, try to establish better relations between the teachers, students, and parents. The group of young people meets whenever Dr. Filippone thinks it is necessary to discuss any important plans that will be presented at the P.T.A. meeting. The students will then comment on the plans, and then suggest any appropriate changes that they feel are fair and will benefit the students.

The group has had two meetings this year, and at both, they discussed plans that will be presented at future P.T.A. meetings. They hope to present the students' viewpoint to parents and teachers. Perhaps in the future years, the P.T.A. will be called the P.T.S.A. - - the Parents Teachers Students Association.

SENIOR STUDENT COUNCIL

The senior Student Council, under the supervision of Mr. Holland, was very active this year. Through the Foster Parent Plan, the members made it possible for the student body to adopt a ten year old boy from Hong Kong. They sponsored a dance in the fall and in the spring sponsored the Ring Dance for the juniors. The frequent assembly programs and the annual Christmas Party were provided by the Student Council, as were the School Days pictures taken in October and the refreshments at home football games. For the first time, R-C-S had a pep squad for basketball games, also a project of the Council.

Future Teachers

The Future Teachers of America, one of the largest and most active organizations of R-C-S, again this year presented programs on various aspects of teaching. Some of the featured programs were a roundtable discussion about teaching social studies, a joint meeting with F.N.A., and the traditional covered dish supper in May.

The highlight of this year's program was the trip to Oneonta in the fall. Here members not only toured the campus, but also had the privilege of attending a class with their guide. This opportunity gave the members a true glimpse of college life both on campus and in the classroom.

In the fall, the teacher-aid program was begun. Juniors and seniors in this program spent two weeks in the junior high assuming some of the teachers' daily tasks. After the observation period, the students wrote reports about their experiences.

The local officers this year were: Barbara Davies, president; Carol Parks, vice-president; Jeanne Varcasia, secretary; Neville Strumpf, treasurer and Debbie Wagoner, historian. The club also had Paula Jordan selected as secretary of the Capitol Area Future Teachers of America.

The Future Nurse's Club, under the leadership of Mrs. Caroline Tulloch, met every first and third Thursday of each month. The members went on a field trip to Colombia Memorial Hospital in Hudson, and during the Christmas season gave a party, at which time small gifts were given to the children in the hospital. The club also had an anniversary party. At this meeting the new president and her committee chairmen were installed. Each year the Future Nurses participate in the Science Fair.

LATIN CLUB

Row 1: C. Turner, treasurer; E. Ritzel, program chairman; Mrs. Hosler, advisor. Row 2: B. Davies and L. VanDerzee, co-presidents.

As soon as the new school year started, the Latin Club, under the direction of Mrs. Hosler, began to plan its schedule for the coming year. Lynn VanDerzee and Barbara Davies were elected as co-presidents, Paula Jordan was elected secretary, Chris Turner became treasurer, and Ellen Ritzel was program chairman.

The first meeting was one of planning for the many activities of the new year. The Annual Roman Banquet was held in April, and anyone who had taken Latin was welcome. In December, the Latin Club held its annual Christmas party, at which time Christmas carols were sung in Latin. A play was presented by the club for the enjoyment of everyone.

Under the direction of Mrs. Hosler, the Spanish Club had another active year.

This year the Club has a Spanish pinata, which hangs in Mrs. Hosler's room. The club was also fortunate to see various Spanish movies. The Officers were Patty Kane, president; Larry Parks, vice-president; Carol Parks, secretary; Barbara Wilson, treasurer.

FRENCH CLUB

A new club was formed this year under the direction of Mrs. Myshrall called Les Francais De R-C-S. The club was headed by Janet Archibald. The other officers were Linda Pilhofer, vice-president; Audrey Rickard, secretary; and Pat Russo, treasurer. Audrey was also parliamentarian.

The purpose of the club was to give students the chance to converse in French and extend their knowledge of French culture. During the year, the members enjoyed films, a Christmas party, and many French games. In the Spring the club visited a museum in Williamsburg. They also had dinner at a French restaurant.

All in all, "Les Francais De R-C-S" had "une bonne année."

SENIOR SCIENCE CLUB

D. VanDorn, vice president; J. Varcasia, secretary; C. Stickler, president. Row 2: W. Jones, treasurer.

The Senior High Science Club started the year with a business meeting at which they formulated their policies and programs for the coming year. A lecture and exhibit on model airplanes by Mr. De Lucia started the program series. Unfortunately, poor weather conditions prevented an outdoor display of the planes at that time, but the club was able to see this at a later date when the weather improved.

Several films were presented with the film on Hemo the Magnificent as the first. Also, we had the opportunity to attend several lectures at RPI, including one on soap bubbles.

The Atlantic Cement Plant was very cooperative in allowing us to visit the site of its operations and its production plant. The opportunity to see several other plants of scientific interest also presented itself.

In May we concluded our year with a successful banquet at which we decided that we had had an informative and worthwhile year.

JUNIOR HIGH SCIENCE CLUB

For the second consecutive year, the junior high has had its own Science Club under the supervision of Mrs. Ogden and Mrs. Selover. This year's officers included president, J. Loucks; vice-president, D. MacDonald; secretary, T. VanKempen; and treasurer, N. Johnson. The club met every Friday during the eighth period.

For the first half of the year, the program meetings consisted of watching science movies and films and demonstrations by the teachers. After mid-years, the program meetings were postponed so that the students could work on their projects for the School Fair.

After the fair, a different student was assigned each week to present a demonstration to the club.

The club is not only educational, but also recreational for those interested in science.

YORKER CLUB

The Yorker Club, under the direction of Mr. John Collins, planned a very busy year. At their first business meeting, they elected Raymond Collins as president, Bonnie Beggs as vice-president and treasurer, and Marilynn Hoffman as secretary. Their plans for the year included sponsoring dances every eighth period on Thursday, one distant trip in the spring, a few trips to places near by, a dinner for the Yorkers and their families and a bake sale. All funds received will go toward buying a flag, possibly a New York State flag, for our auditorium.

The Yorkers planned to perform services for the community this year. They notified the Bronk House in New Baltimore that they would be willing to work any Saturday to help them with clean-ups.

An initiation of new members was held for the first time this year. All new members were required to wear a coat backwards, and put a feather in their hair and carry the books of old Yorkers for one week. At the end of the week, they were inducted as new Yorker club members.

DEBATE CLUB

L. VanDerzee, treasurer; R. Wolfe, president. Row 2: C. Levett, vice-president; Mr. Bruce, advisor; L. Seufert, secretary.

The Ravena-Coeymans-Selkirk Debate Club is a rather new organization, having come into being only last year. Under the competent leadership of its advisor, Mr. Richard L. Bruce, the club attended interscholastic debates at Siena and New York State University at Albany. This year, the club again attended the debates at Siena and Albany State in addition to inter-scholastic debates with the teams of Vincentian Institute, Albany High, Bethlehem Central, and other public and private schools in the area. During the school year an assembly was staged to better acquaint the student body with the activities of the club.

The purposes of the club cover a wide area of debating skills; developing the ability to reason, presenting logical arguments in a concise manner, learning research methods and library skills, expanding knowledge in the area of current affairs, and teaching the fundamentals of public speaking; in short, to give each member a more fully rounded character and the skills necessary to undertake the responsibilities of citizenship.

Junior High Handicraft Club

Under the direction of Mrs. Darmer, the Junior High Handicraft Club met each Wednesday, 8th period, in the homemaking rooms. During the year the girls worked diligently at making scarves, slippers, and other knit goods. In the spring, the girls displayed their projects at the school fair.

The Honor Society, along with advisor, Mr. Donato, began its active year in September. New members were initiated with the traditional "Dress-Down Day." The initiation ceremonies were then held the following day with a formal "Dress-Up Day."

Seniors were awarded their sweaters and junior members were announced at this ceremony.

Honor Society also served as guides at the Parents' Night held in November.

Under the supervision of Mr. Harry Sturges, the Stamp Club was once again active. Members were scheduled to meet once a month, but because of their great interest, most of them came to room 133 every Monday afternoon. They learned about the stamps, where to find them and other interesting things that the students were eager to find out. Each student was assigned a topic and was to give a report on the information he could find pertaining to the topic. All this was led by the club's president, Billy Knox.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

This year the Ravena-Coeymans-Selkirk Photography Club under the guidance of Mr. John G. Collins has imparted to its members a great understanding of the fascinating field of photography. Because of the complexity of the hobby, a program of lectures was created and presented by Donald VanDorn and Ronald Wolf with the cooperation of Mr. Collins. Topics such as the history of photography, composition, lighting, lens systems, film developing, printing and finishing were presented in such a manner as to allow each member to progress according to his ability.

Dark room facilities were made available at small charge to members who desired to use them. During the meetings, sessions were held to enable members to discuss new materials and processes in the field of photography, and to solve any problems they might have.

As the year draws to a close, we feel we have accomplished our main purpose, providing members of the club with the satisfaction of producing a picture, from the composition to the finished print.

Under the direction of Miss Rita Demers, a group of girls, known as the Business Service Club, assisted the faculty and secretaries by doing secretarial work for them. Two main groups existed. One group, the Secretarial Practice girls, acted as secretaries for the department chairmen. The other group, Office Practice and Shorthand II and Transcription girls, did work assigned to them by teachers and secretaries. This club provides practice for the girls who, one day, plan to be secretaries.

DRAMATICS

The members of Asteria presented two plays this year. The first was a one act play, "Muggsy's Merry Christmas," by Donald Payton. The second, a play dramatized by Frances Goodrich and Albert Hackett, entitled The Diary of Anne Frank, was presented May 15 and 16. For each play, the work was divided into committees. Publicity and sets (scenery) were supervised by Mr. Touhey. Mrs. Cornelius was in charge of the make-up and property committees, while Mrs. Biskin had charge of production.

On November 13, the senior high members of Asteria visited television station WRGB. While there, they were allowed to watch a commercial in the making.

All in all the dramatics club had a very successful year.

JUNIOR BAND

The band is an organization of students who are interested in music and play one of the many instruments of the band. R-C-S is fortunate in having both a junior and a senior band.

The junior band, directed by Mr. Hemingford, prepares the students for senior band. The students in junior band are given practice in group playing and other fundamentals of playing, such as scales, sight reading, and playing all types of music. The junior band rehearses on Tuesdays and Thursdays during the eighth period.

The members of the senior band have had more experience with an instrument and have as their director, Mr. McNaughten. The band plays for concerts, football games, and other school functions. The band rehearses every seventh period and is considered a regular credit bearing subject. The band plays many types of music, from Bossa Nova and Hootenanny tunes to music written by Beethoven.

VARSITY CLUB

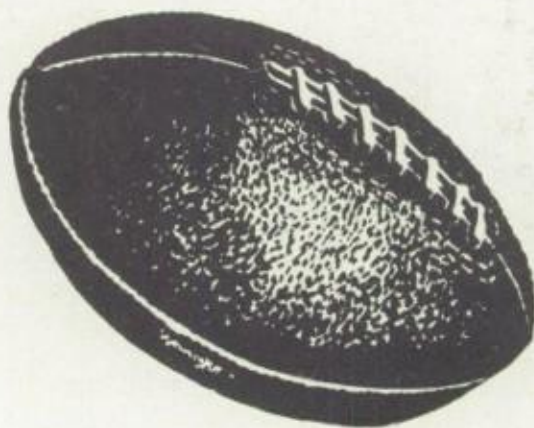

Kneeling: A. Williams, president. Standing: R. Becker, vice-president; J. Eaton, treasurer; T. Spadaro, secretary.

Perhaps you have seen several fellow students arriving at and leaving school wearing green and gold jackets. These jackets are one of the signs of the Varsity Club. Each member also receives a school letter at the end of the year. Each year, the club sponsors bake sales and a candy selling drive which help to pay for their jackets. This year two dances were held to help benefit the club.

The purpose of the club is to promote school athletics and good sportsmanship, as well as good school spirit.

The clubs officers included Tony Williams, president; Rick Becker, vice-president; John Eaton, treasurer; and Tom Spadaro, secretary. They had as their advisor, Mr. Victor Carrk.

Tony Williams pulls in a long one for a touchdown.

This year under the direction of a new coach, Mel Schaefer, the football team played its first year of 11-man football. Although we didn't belong to a league this year, we were able to play seven games and ended with a record of 2-3-1. The lack of seniors on this year's squad will make next year's team strong, with many lettermen returning. Along with Coach Schaefer were Coaches Dom Donato, Andy Komorny, and Joe Oppedisano, who with their constant urgings and wise cracks, kept our team in good spirits.

CROSS COUNTRY

Last year, R-C-S, for the first time, started a cross country team. They did quite well during their first season, with 4 wins and 6 losses. They played against such schools as Cardinal McCloskey, Van Rensselaer, Albany Academy, Maple Hill, Milne, C.B.A. and LaSalle.

Thirteen boys made up the team, with Doug Quay as captain and Mr. Victor Carrk as coach.

Although two members of the team were seniors this year, R-C-S looks forward to an even more successful season next year.

This was the first year that R-C-S participated in a new promising interscholastic sport - wrestling. There was quite an interest in the sport, demonstrated by the large turnout by our boys.

In this new sport, coached by Mr. Carrk, are several weight classes ranging from the 90 pound class to the unlimited class. Our boys competed in almost all of the classes. We were fortunate, this year, to gain a tremendous amount of experience, despite the fact that we were victorious only once, against Philip Schuyler. We grappled with many schools and showed great promise for an even better turnout at future matches.

PROM

On Saturday evening, May 25, 1963, the Junior Class of R-C-S presented their prom, "Stairway to the Stars." It was held in the beautifully decorated gymnasium which emphasized tall white pillars and a blue mist ceiling which partially concealed bright gold stars. At 11:00 P.M., the awaited moment came. At this time, the court and candidates began their march down the aisle to the stage in the auditorium. The former king (Larry Westervelt) and queen (Sharon Frey) led the procession, followed by their court which consisted of members from each class and finally, the candidates for the new king and queen — Karla Armstrong, Timothy Tucker, Dianne Rosato, Wayne Dean, Jeanne Fuller, Gary Kellam, Donna Caracciola, and Anthony Williams. As the crowd watched with growing excitement, King Larry and Queen Sharon crowned Gary Kellam and Donna Caracciola as the new king and queen of the Junior Prom.

This prom will always remain a happy memory for the Class of '64.

Michelle Wyche, Tom Spadaro, and Cheryl Wright are congratulated by Mr. Doyle after they have received their rings.

Paul Osterhout goes through the large replica of the ring.

RING DANCE

On April 26, the fifth annual Ring Dance was sponsored by the Student Council. This event is the ceremony for the presentation of class rings to the juniors. Dr. Filippone began the ceremony with an explanation of the ring and what it symbolizes. The members of the junior class then proceeded through the large replica of the ring, each proudly placing the new ring on his finger.

Linda Halsted, addressing the student body, read a farewell speech to her sister class of '63.

J. Eaton was tapped president of student council.

MOVING UP DAY

John Lann, was sworn into the office of vice-president of Student Council, by last year's president, John Featherston.

Each year, near the close of the school term, a ceremony is held which, we at R-C-S, call Moving Up Day. The seniors are the star attraction. At that time, the seniors present their class history, prophecy, and will. Each class, except for the senior, sits in its section of the auditorium and wears the class color. The freshmen wear green carnations; the sophomores, pink; and the juniors wear blue. The seniors sit on the stage and each one wears a red rose. Also, at this time, awards are presented by Dr. Filippone. The biggest event of the day is the tapping of the new president and vice-president of the Student Council. Toward the end of the program, the editor-in-chief of the yearbook announces to whom the yearbook has been dedicated. She then presents a yearbook to that person, to the high school principal and to the supervising principal. At the close of the program, students return to their homerooms to receive their copies of the new yearbook.

CHRISTMAS FESTIVITIES

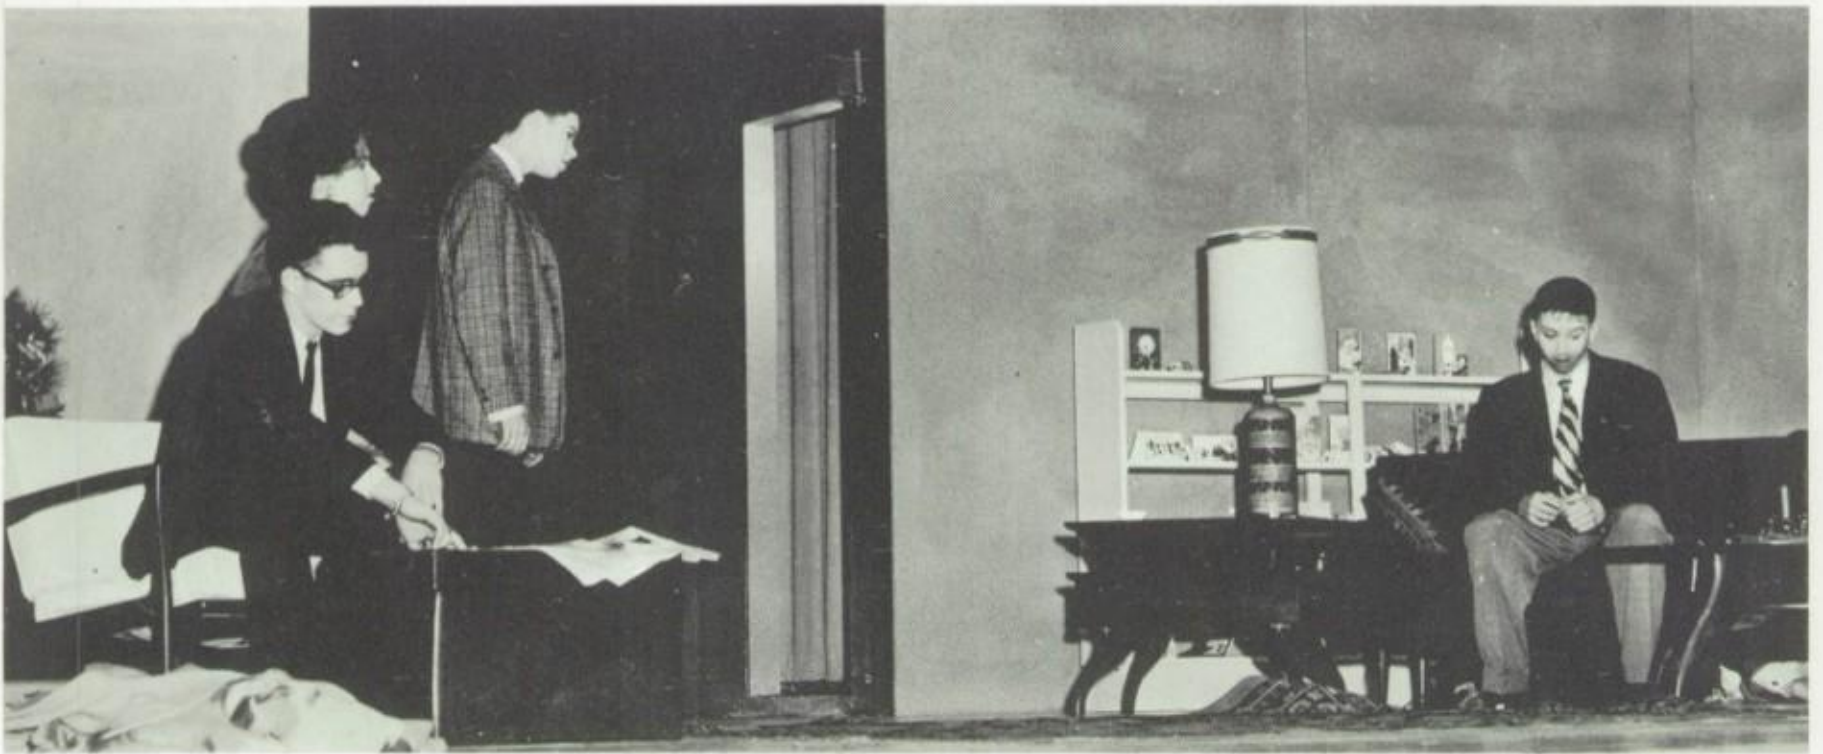

On the last day of school before our Christmas vacation, the teachers versus the Student Council game was held in the gym. It was a close game, but the boys won by a score of one point.

The Dramatics Club presented a Christmas play entitled "Muggsy's Merry Christmas." Muggsy was played by Mike Fowler. Others in the cast included Jim Nealand, Toni Graves, Bob Burkhart, Mike Reynolds, and Bonnie Ropes.

THE MEGATONES

This year a new group emerged at R-C-S, the Megatones. This group consists of three guitar players and one drummer. The leader and president of the group is Bill White, while the vice-president is Richie Knight, the secretary is Dave Gifford, and the treasurer is Tom Reinisch.

The boys were fortunate enough to cut a record called "Interference," on the Decca label, which was played almost every half hour on a leading radio station in Albany, but this fame didn't come without hard work. The boys practice four days a week and travel to New York City, where they play in the Peppermint Lounge every other Saturday night. They also have a steady job at the Delmar Canteen.

The boys' manager is Jack Hayden, a resident of New York City. He was responsible for bringing and publicizing the Beatles in the United States.

We wish the group the best of luck on their latest record and public appearances.

In Memoriam

Death is only an old door,
Set in a garden wall,
On gentle hinges it goes, at dusk,
When thrushes call . . .

Now that you have seen the final product, we hope that you have enjoyed it as much as we have enjoyed preparing the finished product for you. As the year draws to an end, may the events of 1963 - '64 always remain with you.

Bette,
So my friend
forbidden, I wish I wish success &
happiness forever.
May your big wish
come true as you
as wonderful a person deserves it, all
"him". Remember
Bob's horses, etc.
May our friendship
as perfect as it may "you know who"
be as great as begin, night &
"Everybody pay & continue to live
been so far.
bless you.
as always,
Linda
(Tea time!)

Bette,
Stay as nice as you are and you will always succeed. I hope we are in the same classes next year and have as much fun
together.
Your friend,
Nancy

Bette,
Best of luck
to a real sweet freshman Always stay as nice as you are and success will follow you throughout your life.

Bette
I'm trying to sign your yearbook
but I can't keep bumping myself - but I don't mind. So anyway, the very best of luck to a sweet girl and a whole lot of happiness

Bette,
Best of luck
to a real cute
kid. Remember all the fun we had in Algebra.
Florence

Bette,
Here's wishing the best of luck always to a wonderful girl.
Always remember the good times we have had and
please stay as nice
as you are now.

Your friend
Johnny B.
